- Annex 1: Working Groups Description
- Annex 2: Member Application Form

2. QuIC in a Nutshell

We are a not-for-profit association established by several major business actors, including large enterprises, SMEs, investors, and startups, from across Europe.

Our mission is to boost European industry competitiveness in quantum technologies, and to foster economic growth and value creation for businesses in Europe. QuIC operates as a collaborative hub throughout Europe to build a strong, vibrant ecosystem between SMEs, large corporations, investors, and leading researchers. Some of the activities we carry out:

- Develop a common roadmap for research, development, and deployment of commercial quantum technologies (QT) in Europe;
- Cooperate with the European institutions and other stakeholders;
- Establish a collaborative hub and a vibrant ecosystem for the QT industry;
- Position QT products and services as key enablers for addressing Europe's societal and environmental challenges;
- Engage in pre-standardisation activities & collaborate with standardisation bodies;
- Develop IP strategies to enable a competitive European QT industry;
- Define education & training needs to support the growth of the QT industry.

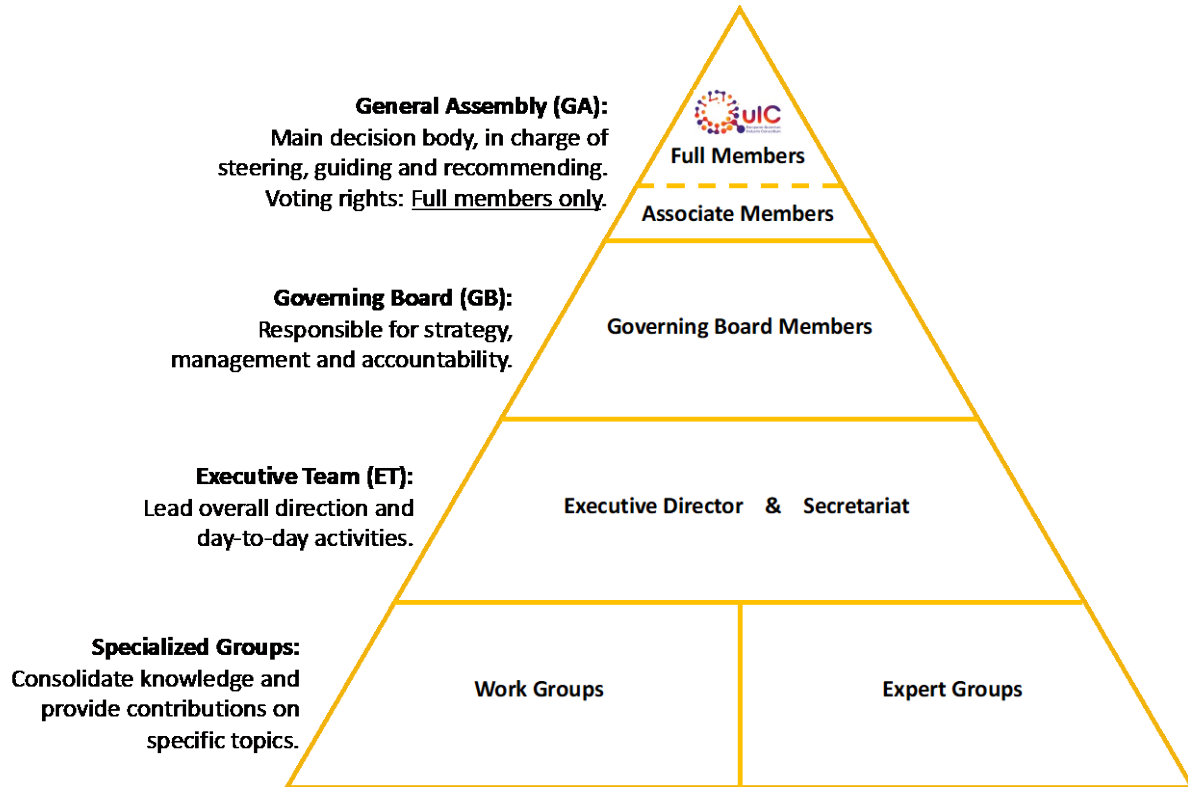

3. Benefits of Joining QuIC

Membership of the Association gives the following benefits:

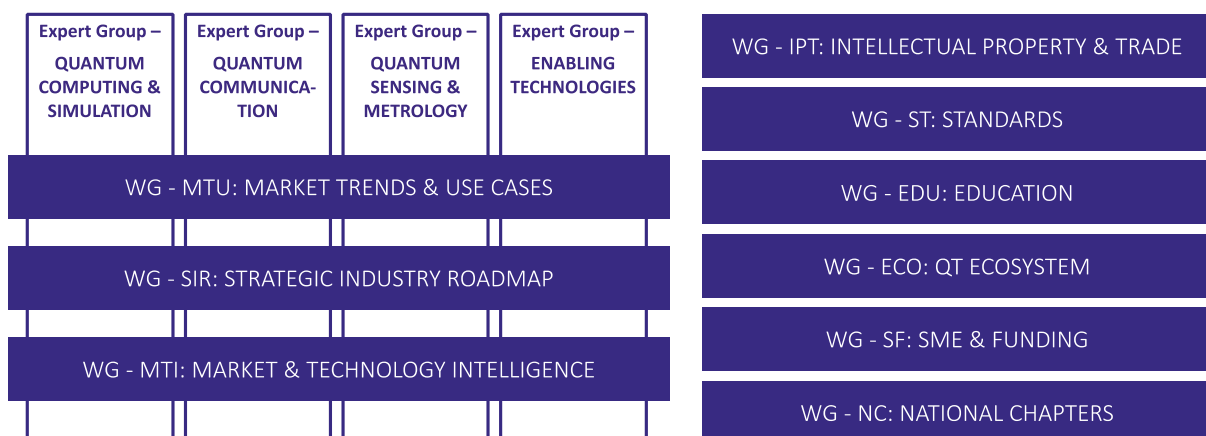

- Be part of the largest and most influential industry voice on QT in Europe;
- Influence the European QT roadmap, challenges and industry needs for the years to come by contributing to the Strategic Industry Roadmap and to whitepapers and position papers;
- Be informed about policies and strategic orientations of European countries on QT;
- Network with industrial and research entities in the European QT value chain, and set-up collaborative research and innovation activities.

4. QuIC Structure and Legal Setting

QuIC core components are its members, having two tiers of membership, Associate and Full, with specific rights, explained in the following section. They form the General Assembly, which is the main decision body of QuIC. The ordinary business is carried out by the Executive Director and its team.

QuIC organises the work toward its objectives in Work and Expert Groups, where the members engage and influence with the aim for QuIC to be the European Quantum Technologies reference point. You can find the overall structure below and a brief description in the Annex 1.

QuIC is headquartered in Jülich, Germany and recognized as a not-for-profit association¹.

5. QuIC - Membership Rights

Membership to QuIC grants the following rights to members (depending on your tier):

- Attend the meetings of the General Assembly;
- Vote at the General Assembly (only Full members);
- Call for an extraordinary GA (only Full members);
- Participate in the activities of the Association;
- Be elected to the Governing Board (only Full Members);

6. QuIC - Membership Fees

European Quantum Industry Consortium e.V- (QuIC) membership fees 2024

Annex 1: Working Groups Description

WG IPT "Intellectual Property & Trade"

WG IPT seeks to understand the main challenges and identify solutions to improve the basin of patents and the creation of IP on quantum technologies and related fields in Europe. The group's output is intended to support the creation of knowledge in Europe and help safeguard the intellectual property of European companies to ensure long-term economic benefits for the region.

WG MTU "Market Trends & Use Cases"

WG MTU engages in the active identification of market trends and use cases that are economically relevant to the European industry. These activities are designed to extend the reach of European QTs, offering ideas of new products and services to companies not yet active in the QT space and possibly expanding the portfolio of current QT players. Outputs from the "Market Trends & Use Cases" WG will help orient public funding programmes, inform the investment priorities of venture capital firms, and ultimately strengthen the European QT ecosystem.

WG EDU "Education"

WG EDU seeks to address educational needs to enhance Europe's workforce in the area of quantum technologies. Areas of focus include the identification of skills and gaps in Europe, the development of trainings for current professionals, and influencing educational bodies to best prepare the workforce of tomorrow on quantum technologies.

WG ST "Standards"

Standards are crucial ingredients to establish emerging markets and ecosystems in a durable manner. WG ST is the QuIC community forum that will produce the means to identify the needs and common alignments between QuIC members on standards across all quantum technology pillars. WG ST will establish the channels of communication and synergistic activities on the identified needs and common viewpoints between the QuIC members and the Standardization Bodies and will create and interchange information for the benefit of its members and EU relevant bodies.

WG MTI "Market & Technology Intelligence"

WG MTI is the QuIC community forum to capture and track the status and progress of quantum technologies in Europe. Understanding the state of the art of Quantum Technologies is critical in identifying emerging markets and ecosystems in a durable manner. This WG will develop a living document capturing the state of the art of the quantum ecosystem and a set of recommendation for the QuIC and feed into the strategic roadmap for Quantum Technologies and identify the requirements for a successful industrial quantum ecosystem across all quantum pillars.

WG SIR "Strategic Industry Roadmap"

WG SIR is responsible for the development of a comprehensive, industry-led roadmap across all four major quantum verticals: computing, communication, metrology & sensing, and enabling technologies. The group consists of a growing number of industry members from across technology sectors and across the European continent. Its primary output, the Strategic Industry Roadmap, will serve as a guide to inform policies, orient government support, extend the European value chain to cover all critical aspects of each quantum vertical.

WG ECO "QT Ecosystems"

WG ECO brings together the diverse set of quantum communities present in QulC. The group's aim is to provide a semi-structured environment in which members can continue to strengthen their own role in the quantum ecosystem, while helping to shape the future of the Quantum Technology Industry in Europe and globally.

WG NC "National Chapters"

WG NC focuses on establishing strong, local chapters of QulC across Europe. Each chapter is composed of selected QulC members who serve as local points of contact and channels of communication for the association.

WG SF "SME & Funding"

WG SF looks at the role of SMEs within the Quantum Ecosystem and sources of funding for the research, development and commercialisation of quantum technologies. The working group will be benchmarking best practices in the creation and support of SMEs and start-ups as well as investigating innovative sources of funding for quantum technologies.

Annex 2: Member application form

[My organisation legal full name, street, town, country (*)] _____
 _____ hereinafter referred to as “Applicant”, applies for [full / associate (*)] _____ membership in the European Quantum Industry Consortium e.V. (QuIC).

The Applicant is represented by [Name and title of legal representative(s) of Applicant (*)], _____ hereinafter referred to as “Authorised Representative”, who is/are an authorised representative(s) of the Applicant.
